Re: WHOOPS!

Here at Cobra, we believe in doing things right or not doing them at all. In that vein, when we make a mistake... we make it a DOOZY!

We had recently begun production of our ALL NEW Fishing Kayak, the Cobra Mariner-XF, but found there was one small problem. Unfortunately during our searches to check the availability of the name, we somehow overlooked an entire company located in Washington named, strangely enough... Mariner Kayaks. Our sincere apologies to Matt and Cam.

Luckily, they found us prior to our hitting stride with a full production run of our New Kayak, and we were able to immediately change the graphics for our newest release, which will now be named (Drum Roll Please) The Cobra Marauder-XF.

Strangely enough, all vital statistics for our new Marauder-XF are identical to the discontinued Cobra Mariner-XF. The Marauder-XF has all the same great features, speed and stability. All the features that gave the Mariner-XF so much promise...

But now with twice the attitude.
